ABOUT OUR BOOK WHICH WE HAVE

Cross sections! What a lot we hear about them! Well, this is another cross section—a cross section of life on the "Hill"! A glimpse of student life as a student sees it. If looking through this book brings to your mind vividly one incident that occurred during your stay at L. C., its editors will have accomplished their aim.

Dedicated

TO ERNEST AUBREY BAILEY

In appreciation of his never-failing patience, his unswerving diligence, his keen sense of humor, his modesty, and his loyalty to the ideals of LaGrange College.

HUBERT QUILLIAN

It is with a sense of poignant interest and affectionate esteem that I express this word of greeting to the class of 1942. We came to LaGrange College together in the fall of 1938, all of us entering a new phase of life and experience. In these four years of our association much has happened to draw us closer together. We live in a different world today from the one we knew as we started our journey together. It does not yet appear the kind of a world we will know in the years that lie ahead. One thing we do know is that life will challenge us to live at our best. If we believe "that through the ages one increasing purpose runs" and in the confidence of this faith, with a deep and abiding concern for the common good, seek the true values of life, we may be assured of the attainment of the good and the true and the beautiful. May the knowledge you have gained here be transmitted into power that will contribute to your joy and welfare and happiness. So may your experience at LaGrange College be "an education for power and service" and a stimulation to "a harmonious expansion of all the powers which make for the beauty and worth of human nature."

Affectionately yours,

HUBERT QUILLIAN

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater;

Guardian of our days;

For thy spirit never failing

We would sing thy praise.

High aloft we hold thy banner,

Ever loyal, true;

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,

Hail to thee, LaGrange.

In thy mighty grove of learning,

Wisdom's path we've sought;

High upon thy lofty hilltop

Visions have been wrought.

From our hearts we sing the chorus,

Let the sound prolong!

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater.

Hail to thee, LaGrange!

MISS EPPS has been our sponsor for four years, and we all feel that we have been very fortunate to have her. Ever thoughtful, this year she initiated our class Red Cross work. She has been both a friend and an adviser to us as a class and as individuals.

Jimmy was not just adopted by our class. Two outstanding members of it are kin to him—an aunt and a cousin. His appearance at our class meeting to accept in person our invitation endeared him to those few who had not already realized what a fine escort he would make for the thirty of us.

IN A COLLEGE LIBRARY

Here, for Youth, is stored the wisdom of the ages;
Secrets of science, mysteries of art,
Await the questing mind and eager heart
Of those who would explore these priceless pages.
Here the young dreamers, lifting glowing eyes
From open books, may look upon far places;
May feel the wind of fancy in their faces,
And stand a moment underneath strange skies.

Here history sounds the rumble of old wars;
And romance voices that which once was said,
In words that echoed to the swinging stars,
Uttered by poets who have long been dead;
But more than all that has been said or sung,
Are they who seek this place—they are The Young!

THE L. C. GIRL'S CREED

Life is mine to live. That I may cherish it
And right royally meet its responsibilities,
I would lay aside that which is
Narrow, selfish, ignoble, and unkind.
The false, the superficial, the dishonest,
I would shun in thought, word, and deed.
Rather may I cultivate in my college life
Those traits and ideals that will fit me
To weave dreams into realities, and impressions into character,
To meet bravely the hard tasks of life,
To bring joy to those who sorrow and
Strength to those who falter in their tasks.
I would strive to judge more kindly,
Trust more fully, and love more deeply,
That my life may reflect His goodness,
And my soul may grow in the knowledge
Of Him, Whom to know is Life Eternal.

The Student Government Association has as its purpose the maintenance of high standards of living and scholarship on the college campus.

In the fall, it is the duty of the Student Government to help the new students become adjusted to their surroundings. The orientation of the Freshmen culminates in the Junior-Freshman Wedding. It is then that the Freshmen become members of the Student Government Association.

Not only at the beginning of the school term but throughout the year the council members strive toward happy student relationships and profitable college experiences. In May, the Student Council sent delegates to the Twentieth Annual Congress of the Southern Federation of College Students' and Publications' Representatives. This meeting was held in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Student Government Association is founded on honor, truth, cooperation, and service. The Student Council hopes that the girls, by establishing for themselves high ideals, will be able to meet life equipped with trained minds and strong characters.

The purpose of the Y. W. C. A. is to help the student to a richer, fuller, and nobler conception of life, to further spiritual and social growth, and to encourage Christian youth with its ideals and purposes.

Five nights each week vesper services, conducted by various students, are held in the Prayer Hall; also, on Sunday morning, watch is held in the parlor of Smith. These services are a daily reminder of the organization's purpose. The Prayer Hall has become one of L. C.'s most treasured traditions and one that all of the students and alumnae hold very dear.

New members are received at the beginning of the year in a candlelight service. They are pledged by the lighting of their candles from the candle in the hand of the president. A tea is given for the new members of the student body during the fall.

The social service work includes Thanksgiving baskets distributed to some of the poor families of LaGrange and also a Christmas party given in the dining hall for the service force.

Delegates from the Christian organizations of nearby colleges were received at our school during the year. They presented inspirational and helpful programs. The Y. W. C. A., also, sent representatives to the Student Officers Retreat in Athens, the National Methodist Student Conference in Urbana, Juna-luska, and Blue Ridge.

The Y. W. C. A. plays a leading role in our college life. Christ came that we "might have life and that we might have it more abundantly." The Y. W. C. A. tries to make life on the Hill parallel this, our theme and benediction.

The Curtain Raisers, under the sponsorship of the Speech department, has for its purpose promoting interest in dramatics and developing individual dramatic tendencies. The organization includes all Speech students and all other students accepted by the members after a tryout. The masculine members come from LaGrange and nearby towns.

Several major performances are presented during the year, including three-act plays, one-act plays, and the annual Christmas pageant. The first production of the year was Men Must Fight by Laurence and Lauren; and the annual Christmas pageant, which is always given in conjunction with the Glee Club, was The Madonna of the Crossroads by K. Henshaw.

Under the direction of Miss Alma Tress Lundman, the Curtain Raisers have had a most successful year.

RELATIONS CLUB

The International Relations Club has as its purpose the study and interpretation of history as it is being made daily in national and international events. The membership of the club is composed of girls who are either majoring or minoring in history or who show decided interest in this subject. The club is under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace Organization from which it receives annually eight to sixteen books of current interest in the political, economic, and historical fields. In addition, it is a member of the Georgia International Club. The club desires to develop among the students intelligent thought on modern affairs.

Ordeal—the Story of My Life might easily be the autobiography of a college annual as well as that of an archduchess! Ask any annual staff. We're sure they'll agree. Just by way of example, here are a few of the trials and tribulations of an annual staff. See that weatherbeaten automaton with a ruler in one hand and pencil in the other? Right there in the midst of the layout and dummy layout? Well, that's the once precocious Jane Cooper. Editing has had its effects! Over there among the candid camera shots is Jolly about to lose her mind. Oh, yes, and that person tearing her hair is none other than "Flea" trying to arrange ads.

Right over there is Margaret Fleeth who is still trying to figure where that last hundred dollars is going to come from if some of the girls don't pay their bills. Oh, yes, and Dot Thompson and Pat Barbour are smiling feebly in an attempt to be polite while trying to decide what to say about a particularly illustrious Senior!

You'd think we haven't had fun getting up this QUADRANGLE just from reading the above—but we have! We hope you will make allowances for any mistakes or omissions and find as much enjoyment in reading our book as we have had in preparing it for you.

The SCROLL is the literary publication of LaGrange College. The magazine, which is published three times a year, contains poems, stories, essays, reviews, and articles contributed by the student body.

In cooperation with the staff is the Ouill Drivers Club. Membership is obtained by having a total of three articles published in one year. The members meet with the staff and work with it on the magazine.

Each year those students who have made the most distinctive contributions during the year are chosen by a faculty committee for the Scroll of Fame. These students' pictures, never more than four in one year, are hung in the Library. This is the highest honor awarded at LaGrange College for literary work.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club's purpose is to raise the standard of productive musical work and to uphold the highest ideals of musical education. Under the direction of Miss Gilbert, the Glee Club has in many ways drawn the college community and the city closer together. Of the many appearances of the Glee Club, the most outstanding one was at the Georgia Federation of Music Clubs, held in Atlanta. The annual Glee Club concert, the Christmas pageant, and May Day were highlights for the Glee Club this year. In the Glee Club, work is truly enjoyable.

MATHEWS

The Camera Club, organized in 1938 under the sponsorship of Miss Catherine Aycock, has as its aim "better photography from amateur photographers." It strives to create and develop an interest in picture taking, developing, and printing. The only requirement made of a member is that she own a camera and show an interest in all realms of photography.

Each month the club has a night meeting with a program on some phase of photography. Several people in town who have photography as their hobby have been very cooperative with the club in allowing it to use their materials and equipment.

The social activities of the Camera Club include an early morning breakfast and a wiener roast.

An art is not a Fine Art unless its purpose is first and foremost to give pleasure—to give aesthetic pleasure—pleasure derived from the sense of beauty; and to give it by means of an imitation or interpretation of life in terms of artistic conventions.

The Art Club through its monthly programs develops in its members an appreciation of art that will enlarge their powers of understanding and consequently of enjoyment. The members study the life and works of the old masters as well as the contemporary artists. The club sponsors exhibits of various art schools which are open to the public and thus enlists the cooperation and interest of the townspeople as well as the students.

Outstanding in the life of a LaGrange College girl is the day that bids are issued by the sororities. The anxiety and expectations with which the girls, old and new, wait at the post-office as the answers come in help make up an unforgettable day.

This day's procedure is governed by the Inter-Sorority Council which was founded in 1927. The aim of this organization is to promote cooperation and good-will among the sororities on the Hill. The president and one representative of each sorority make up the Council, which discusses all problems relative to the sororities.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

DORIS ARRINGTON
President

The Athletic Association has for its purpose the promotion of wholesome play on the campus and the development of a spirit of good sportsmanship and friendship among the girls.

Through membership in the Georgia Federation of College Women, the association is informed of the latest trends in athletics and the problems confronting the athletic departments of this state. Contributing to the News-Letter and sending representatives to the convention are the means of active participation.

The "L" Club is made up of those girls who, by dint of determination and sacrifice, have kept those long health months; played innumerable hours of tennis, ping pong, badminton, and shuffleboard; swum, danced, and hiked mile upon mile; spent hours in company with a bow and arrow; and played soccer and softball for the classes, in order to win the coveted "L." Each year the girls who have the highest number of points receive a letter. This year we have a larger "L" Club than we've had in several years.

DUNSON MILLS
LaGrange, Georgia

Many years ago LaGrange was named by one of her first citizens "The City of Elms and Roses;" since that time she has also become the City of Cotton Mills; and her residents may justly feel a pride in either name.

THE DUNSON MILLS lie on the eastern edge of the city, between the Atlanta and West Point Railroad and the Atlanta Highway, Route 14. Its buildings and the grounds are among the most attractive in the South today. The main mill building and offices are surrounded by a wide expanse of velvety lawns, green the year round, and appropriately planted with flowering and evergreen shrubs. The mill building is of red brick with white trim, and has a base planting of shrubbery. The tenement village has some three hundred houses of three and four-room types, at all times kept freshly painted white, with green trim. Every home is provided with electric lights and running water and has ample room surrounding it for flowers and vegetable gardens, chickens, and a cow if desired. The City of LaGrange last year erected in our village a most modern and commodious Grammar School Building for the children in our section. The school is equipped with a splendid kitchen and cafeteria, and has a beautiful auditorium. The Company operates at its own expense a well-equipped kindergarten for the small children. The Company also furnishes a two-story brick building for use as a meeting place for clubs, lodges, and community gatherings.

A full-time graduate nurse is regularly employed by the Company for the welfare of its employees and their families, and group life insurance at a very low rate is provided for all who wish it.

The Company a few years ago built two modern brick churches, one of Old English and one of Colonial design, and besides furnishing light, heat and janitor service for the congregations using them, also contributes substantially to the support of their resident pastors.

The Dunson Mills extend greetings and good wishes not only to the LaGrange College seniors of 1942 but to all the girls on the hill.
